About Me

Hello,I'm Ko Khant, a 2nd year student at Computer Science department of Yangon University.

I've been learning all the stuff associated with graphic design & UI/UX development as I really passionate on design field as a computer science student.

Also making contents on social media is one of my passions and I do have a proper facebook page and website to create some sort of digital contents.So if i'd have a tiny chance to join with your organization(or) team,I pretty wish to do so.
